Do I just tell the cops that it was just kisses and no oral.
Yeah, just tell them just kisses. Don't admit any oral. If you can away with just telling them just that that saves me. Because at what ent we had sexual contact that makes the crime much greater.

Neal: And the other thing is quite frankly you don't have to say anything to anybody

I don't think. You don't have to. Just tell the police you don't want to talk to them. You're not going to say anything. Your parents will be upset about it.

you'll have to put up with your parents. But that's the only way you can protect me. Because I won't say anything.

Neal: The only way they can prove we did anything is if you tell them we did.

Neal: If you can show it wasn't written somewhere. If you can destroy that evidence like I've done. And if you don't admit that we did anything. Do you think they would buy that.

I don't know

Neal: How closely can you stick to a story. If we make a story how closely can you stick to it under the worse pressure from your parents.

Oral

Neal: Ok, ok.

Neal: Try to delete everything. And try to call me or text me when you can or whatever.

You must try to delete everything and read you emails if you can sweetie.

Change But deleting everything is the most important thing you can do.

nothing else. all you passwords. You can at least change your passwords if bye, bye. Ok, sweetie. Ok, changing passwords will buy you time. Ok,

The pretext phone call was ended.

Based on the statement from [REDACTED], the pretext phone call, and the printed emails I determined that I was going to arrest Neal for PC 288a(b)(1), Oral Copulation w/person under 18 years. Detective S. Miller wrote a search
